

The Promise and Peril of New Technologies in the Classroom

A THREE PART CERTIFICATE SERIES

Session # 1

Is That My Blackberry Sitting on a Pile of Books? The Role of New Literacies in a Crowded Curriculum

DATE: Tuesday, October 21, 2008
TIME: 6:30 pm – 9:30 pm
LOCATION: OISE | University of Toronto
252 Bloor Street West
(St. George Subway) Room TBA
Free admission, Paid parking available,
Wheelchair accessible

Dr. David Booth, OISE/UT

The impact of new technologies in education affects every subject area at every grade level. How will we support all of our students in developing literacy strategies that will enable them to engage with multitexts at deep levels of understanding?

Session #2 Connected Learning in 2009

January 29, 2009

Terry Whitmell, Vice-Principal, Port Credit S.S./Former I.T. Coordinator, PDSB

This hands-on session will introduce you to the potential educational uses and the possible perils of current internet tools such as Facebook, YouTube, and Messenger.

Location: Port Credit Secondary School 70 Mineola Rd. East, Mississauga, ON

Session #3 Gaming & Education/Technology as a Learning Tool

March 5, 2009

Dr. Jennifer Jenson, York University

Dr. Bev Freedman, Educational Consultant

Location: York University, Keele St. campus, Stedman Hall – Studio A

To register, please e-mail: pdkut.register@gmail.com

Questions: PDK Program Co-Chairs: Susanna Tang - 416 219-2883 e: susanna.tang@utoronto.ca or John Myers, Instructor, CTL SE - 416 978-0197 e: jmyers@oise.utoronto.ca